

GLOSSARY

$\frac{3}{4}$	a time signature indicating three crotchet beats per bar	Crescendo <	a gradual increase in volume
$\frac{4}{4}$	a time signature indicating four crotchet beats per bar	Cross-rhythm	a rhythm used simultaneously with another rhythm
$\frac{6}{8}$	a time signature indicating two dotted crotchet beats per bar	Crotchet ♩	a musical note with a time value equal to two quavers
$\frac{12}{8}$	a time signature indicating four dotted crotchet beats per bar	Cumulative song	a song with a simple verse structure whereby the original lyrics stay the same on each repetition and an additional line or lyric is added for each new verse
12-bar Blues	a distinctive chord progression based around the I-IV-V chords of a key	Decrescendo >	a gradual decrease in volume
3-2 Clave	a three-beat, two-beat Latin rhythm	Diminuendo >	a gradual decrease in volume
Adagio	at a slow, leisurely pace	Dissonant	not attaining to any key or mode; a combination of notes that clash with one another and create a lack of pleasing harmony
Allegro	at a brisk speed	Dotted crotchet ♩.	a musical note with a time value equal to one and a half crotchets
Andante	at a walking pace	Drone	a continuous musical note, often of low pitch
Arpeggio	the notes of a chord played in succession, either ascending or descending	Dynamics	volume
Articulation	the style of the execution of a musical note, e.g. spiky or smooth	Forte f	loud
Bar	a short section or measure of music, with a specific number of beats	Fortissimo ff	very loud
Beat	the pulse, or steady heartbeat of the music	Graphic score	the representation of musical composition through the use of visual symbols and images
Bar line	a vertical line used in musical notation to mark the division between bars	Harmony	the combination of simultaneously sounded musical notes
Blues note	a note which is flattened by a semitone (or less), usually found on the 3rd, 5th or 7th degree of the scale	Instrumental	a part of a song that is played without lyrics (often using the familiar chord structure of the verse or chorus)
Bridge	a passage of music that connects one section of a song to another (often referred to as the middle 8)	Interval	the difference in pitch between two sounds
Call and response	a musical phrase in which the first melody or rhythm is responded to or echoed by another melody or rhythm	Key	a group of notes that correspond to a certain scale and form the tonal centre of a section of music
Chord	a group of (typically three or more) notes sounded together, as a basis of harmony	Largo	slowly and broadly
Chorus	a part of a song that is repeated after each verse	Legato	smoothly
Chromatic	where notes ascend or descend by semitones	Lento	slowly
Clef	a musical symbol placed at the left-hand end of a staff, indicating the pitch of the notes written on it	Major key	based on a major scale and tending to produce a bright, joyful effect
Compound time signature	where strong beats are subdivided by three rather than two	Major scale	a series of notes mostly separated by intervals of a tone, but having intervals of a semitone between the 3rd and 4th and 7th and 8th degrees
Consonant	harmony that attains to the key or mode of the music; a combination of notes that create a conventionally pleasing sound	Melody	the arrangement of single notes that create a satisfying musical sequence
Counter melody	a subordinate melody accompanying a principal one	Mezzo forte mf	moderately loud
		Mezzo piano mp	moderately soft/quiet
		Minim ♩	a musical note with a time value equal to two crotchets

Minor key	based on a minor scale and tending to produce a sad or pensive effect	Root note	the fundamental note of a chord
Minor scale	a series of notes mostly separated by intervals of a tone, but having intervals of a semitone between the 2nd and 3rd degrees and (usually) the 5th and 6th and the 7th and 8th	Round	(canon) – a song for three or more parts, each starting one after another with the same melody, creating a polyphonic effect as they overlap.
Moderato	moderately	Scale	an arrangement of notes in ascending or descending order of pitch
Modulation	the change from one key (tonal centre) to another	Semibreve 	a musical note with a time value equal to two minims or four crotchets
Musical form	the overall structure or plan of a piece of music	Semiquaver 	a musical note with a time value equal to half a quaver
Notation	a system of written symbols used to visually represent aurally perceived music	Semitone	the interval between two adjacent notes on a piano or the smallest interval commonly used in classical Western music
Octave	the difference in sound (interval) between the 1st and 8th notes in a musical scale. These notes share the same letter name, with the top note (e.g. C) having twice the frequency of vibration of the bottom note (C)	Sequence	a repetition of a phrase or melody at a higher or lower pitch
Offbeat	any of the normally unaccented beats in a bar	Shuffle	a rhythmic motif based on a shuffle dance step and typical of early jazz, consisting of alternating crotchets and quavers played with a triplet feel
Ostinato	repeated rhythmic or melodic pattern	Sol-fa (short for Tonic Sol-fa)	a set of syllables (do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti) used to represent the tones of the musical scale, each of which has a corresponding hand symbol
Pedal note	a single note sustained or repeated, usually in the bass. The harmonies above it may change but the pedal note stays the same	Staccato	detached
Pentatonic scale	a five-note scale pattern	Stave	a set of five parallel lines on which notes are written to indicate pitch
Phrase	a group of notes forming a distinct unit within a longer passage	Structure	the organization of a piece of music into sections, i.e. ABA
Pianissimo pp	very soft/quiet	Swung quavers	a musical technique of playing two quavers where the first is held for slightly longer than the second, giving an underlying triplet feel
Piano p	soft/quiet
Pitch	how high or low a note sits	Syncopation	placement of notes off the main beat
Polyphony	the simultaneous combination of a number of parts, each forming an individual melody and harmonizing with each other	Tempo	the speed of the music
Polyrhythm	the simultaneous use of two or more different rhythms	Texture	layers of rhythm and sound
Presto	quickly	Timbre	the character or quality of a musical sound; tone colour of instruments: low/high; soft/hard; metallic/wooden/stringed/wind
Pulse	the beat, or steady heartbeat of the music	Time signature	an indication of rhythm/metre that gives the number of beats per bar
Quaver 	a musical note with a time value equal to half a crotchet	Tonality	the harmonic effect of being in a particular key
Rest	a period of silence of a specified duration	Tonic	the first note of a major or minor scale
Rhythm	duration/length of notes; regular, repeated patterns of sound	Tremolo	a wavering effect in a musical tone produced by a rapid repetition of a single tone, or alternating tones
Ritardando	a gradual decrease in speed	Verse	a group of lines that form a unit in a song
Rondo	a musical form with a recurring leading theme that alternates with one or more contrasting themes, such as ABA, ABACA or ABACABA	Vivace	in a lively and brisk manner